For the phone, the Business Services page lists four phone numbers: Business Information Line Chicago: (312) 793-3380Springfield Company Information Line: (217) 782-6961Polish Company Information Line: (312) 793-4938Spanish Information on the Line : (312) 793-2365 Who should present an Annual Illinois report? The annual report for a company must be presented by a corporation officer. As a company owner, it is your responsibility to archive in time. Failure file can lead to the revoked legal status of your entity. An administrative dissolution of your company will require new documents to be deposited to receive your company restored. Although the State Secretary of Illinois can send you a reminder to present your annual report, it is more than a courtesy. In Illinois, the annual reports are due by the end of the month preceding the one in which the activity was formed. Mail deposits take a long time for the process. Corporate and LLC annual reports are deposited with the secretary of the Illinois secretary, through the website or by email. For example, the companies that must list more than six officers and six directors must present a report (paper) physical. You must send basic information about all the officers and administrators. With only one page to fill out, LLCs has a lighter assignment in terms of preparation work. Both LLC and the corporations must submit a tax tax authorization request The Department of Inlet of Illinois. The file will not be able to present the State Illinois secretary to declare that your company is no longer a legal entity. This change must be stored using the 510 / 5.20 BCA module, along with a $ 25 storage fee. You can use a Visa, MasterCard, Discover or American Express card to pay these commissions. All status annual reports are stored with the office of the Illinois secretary. You have completed a pile of documents to start your business, including the writing of a business plan and you are looking forward to your annual report. What happens if my payment is denied when my annual report is deposited? If your payment is not clear, the deposit is empty. This person must be listed in the section for officers. Once a business is revoked, Illinois requires documents to reintegrate. The passages for the deposit of an annual report in Illinois vary slightly based on the fact that your company is a limited liability company (LLC) or a company. Archiving an annual report is mandatory to maintain your activity in accordance with the Law of Illinois. The certificate of good permanent provides evidence that a "e a" e e a, ~ A "playing from the rules", the credibility and the legitimacy of the report. Moreover, LLCs cannot present a Annual Report electronically if the LLC: has been withdrawn (for foreign LLCs) (for foreign LLCs) has been resolved (for domestic LLC) it was administratively dissolved or revoked by the company more than eight manager authorized to establish A series of shares. The use of layered signatures or prosecutor prosecutor, however, the annual LLC reports listed electronically can report changes to the corporate address and changes to the names and / or Manager or members addresses with the manager's authority. Similarly, the companies that own properties outside the Illinois and / or transactions outside the state cannot file electronically. File failure can put your company in in danger: If you have registered your LLC on 7 September, the annual report will be due by 31 August each year. As LLCs are generally simpler business facilities, the annual report form of a page will concentrate more on the bases. But this fee is blamed by 2024. Unlike an operational agreement, which is optional when a LLC in Illinois are formed, the deposit of an annual Illinois report is mandatory for companies in the state. The same term applies to national and foreign companies whether they are business or LLC. How much is the Annual Report of Illinois? Put out the deposit of an annual report you will cost you money (sanctions) and time. Your registered agent service can present annual reports to your account. While non-profits will only have to pay a further $ 3 for late deposits, LLC and the corporations have more step sanctions.
